

WHAT IS AN EDCORP?

An Education Corporation (EdCorp) is a web-based, student-run business that operates in a high school skilled trades classroom as a way to foster real world skills.

Want to learn more but not ready to apply?

Schedule an Exploratory Call

Who's eligible to apply?

Open to public high school classrooms focused on the following:

- Construction/Woodshop
- Welding/Fabrication
- Advanced Manufacturing
- Industrial Arts
- Engineering
- Others on a case-by-case basis

What does RWS provide?

- $1000 of start-up funding
- An e-commerce platform students can use to manage their business
- Library of resources to support the business-building process
- Hands-on support and coaching

What are classroom businesses required to do?

- Use tools and modern fabrication technology to design, make, and market a sellable product
- Use the EdCorps Dashboard to create and maintain a website
- List product(s) for sale on your website and attempt to sell
- Share stories of student learning and growth with the RWS Team

HF EDCORPS QUICK LINKS

Harbor Freight Tools for Schools Website

Detailed Infosheet

Building Beyond the Classroom \(Video\)

Sample Product Menu

Click Here to Apply